

CONGRATULATIONS

TO THE NEW PROVINCE

Messages From His Majesty the King and Prince Louis of Battenburg—The Sister Provinces Salute Alberta

His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Bullock has received a number of telegrams of congratulation upon the inauguration of Alberta. That of first importance is from King Edward VII to Earl Grey and forwarded to the Lieutenant-Governor. It reads:

"Am deeply gratified by the expression of loyalty on the part of the newly inaugurated North West Provinces. Pray convey to them my earnest hope that great prosperity may be in store for them."

—EDWARD, R. L.

Prince Louis of Battenburg has wired Lord Grey, which telegram he forwarded to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor as follows:

"Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto have vied with each other in the warmth and splendor of the reception of the officers and men who have been so fortunate as to represent the navy and who will never forget this truly memorable journey. All classes of Canadians have once more given proof of their deep and inborn sympathy with the navy and its work in peace and war."

"I beg your Excellency to convey our most heartfelt thanks to the inhabitants of the four cities. Our only regret is that time did not permit of a visit to the promising North West where I am confident we would have met with an equally warm reception."

—"BATTENBURG."

The Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island wires from Charlottetown as follows:

"Hon. G. H. V. Bullock, Lieut.-Governor, Alberta:

"Congratulations on this auspicious morn. The island joins in wishing Alberta success. Ours at last."

D. H. McKINNON, Lieut.-Gov., P. E. I."

Lieutenant-Governor Forget of Saskatchewan, sent the following message:

"Hon. G. H. V. Bullock, Lieutenant-Governor, Alberta:

"My hearty congratulations on the honor conferred upon you and long life to the fair province of Alberta! Saskatchewan sends best greetings to her twin sister. I deeply regret not being able to attend your celebration."

—A. E. FORGET."

From Lord Strathcona, so intimately connected with the Great West came the following cablegram from England:

"Hon. G. H. V. Bullock, Lieut.-Governor, Alberta:

"My most hearty congratulations to Alberta upon her entrance into the Dominion as a province and upon her attaining full dignity and honor of local autonomy. To me it is especially interesting knowing the North West as I did in its early days when practically a wilderness, and it has my best wishes for its prosperity which now seems so well assured."

—"STRATHCONA."

At Dawson City a public meeting was held on the evening of the 1st as a reception to Hon. Frank Oliver, Minister of the Interior, and the meeting sent the following message of greeting to the newly inaugurated province:

"Hon. G. H. V. Bullock, Lieut.-Governor, Alberta:

"Citizens of Dawson and vicinity assembled in honor of Hon. Frank Oliver offer congratulations on the birth of the new province of Alberta and wish the infant long life, health and prosperity."

F. M. IRON, Secretary.
W. T. BARRETT, Chairman of Committee."

REGINA'S CELEBRATION

WAS A PRONOUNCED SUCCESS

Twelve Thousand Spectators Viewed the Procession—State Luncheon and Ball

Regina, Sept. 4.—The inaugural celebration was a pronounced success and marks an epoch in the annals of the West. Great care had evidently been taken to make the occasion free from any political atmosphere. The proceedings commenced in the morning early with a monster parade of children before Earl Grey and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Earl Grey told the boys "he would be willing to barter all his success could be but for a boy again." Then came the parade, the most picturesque feature of which was the immense band of Indians in full war paint and feathers. The 10th Rifles, of Winnipeg, led the procession which was viewed by 12,000 spectators. Enthusiasm was great as the Vice-Royal party and Sir Wilfrid Laurier with glittering escorts of police clattered through the streets. The crowds then found their way across to the exhibition grounds, where stands had been prepared for the swearing in. In front were drawn up the infantry and police, 250 strong and on the left a battery of six guns. Among the distinguished members of the party were Earl and Countess Grey, Lady Violet Grey, Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, Hon. Wm. Patterson, Sir Gilbert Parker, Sir Geo. French, Colonel Mansbury Williams, Evans, Perry, Commissioner Chipman, D. W. Cole, M.P., Hon. F. W. G. Haultain, Wm. Mackenzie. First came a review of the mounted police who earned great encomiums, the many Americans present being particularly struck with their soldierly bearing. Shortly after noon Mayor Laird, presented a civic address to Earl Grey, who replied professing that the Province would be the home of millions of Britons happy and prosperous. His Excellency referred to Regina as the centre of the wheat belt. He read telegrams from Prince Louis of Battenburg and Colonel Secretary Lyttleton. The most important overseas congratulations were from King Edward. Lieut.-Gov. Forget was sworn and the guns fired a salute of twenty-one guns in salvoes alternated by fus-de-jol. A civic luncheon was given in the city hall at which covers were laid for a hundred and fifty. A state banquet was held in the evening and a public reception followed by a state ball, at which the happy citizens danced till dawn. A feature was the large number of American settlers and visitors present at all the functions.

POLO

The first two games of polo were played on Thursday when Calgary defeated Buffalo Lake and Edmonton tied Cochrane.

This left Calgary the winner of the tournament and the victory was well deserved as the horses of the Calgary team were much faster than those of any of the other teams, though Buffalo Lake played excellent polo. The games were watched with a good deal of interest and proved a good attraction at the celebration.

ANOTHER COAL MINE

Mr. J. R. Brenton, who has been prospecting for coal for the past three months has struck a vein about twenty-eight feet below the water level in the river bed just east of the city limits. Mr. Brenton considers it to be the same seam through which the gas well is bored. He is preparing to work the mine, and hopes to have coal on the market about November 1.

Mr. Brenton claims to have a superior grade of coal and has some very fine samples of it. He claims to have been offered $5 per ton by a blacksmith for a supply the same as his sample.

IMPORTANT VISITORS

PRESIDENT MCKENZIE AND BYRON E. WALKER

Visit Edmonton for the Inaugural Celebration—Impressed With the Great Prospects of the Country

Among the distinguished visitors to the inaugural celebration were President Wm. Mackenzie, of the C.N.R., and Byron E. Walker, general manager of the Bank of Commerce. They came up to Vegreville on the new C. N. R. road and were then driven into the city, while Mr. Mackenzie's private car Antikoke was met there by the C. P. R. It was sent around by the C. P. R. to meet them here.

Speaking to a Bulletin representative President Mackenzie said he was delighted and surprised at the progress Edmonton was making. He was also most emphatic in saying that in sixty days the steel would be laid into Edmonton, unless a longer delay than was expected should be made at the Fort Saskatchewan bridge. On Thursday last at noon the steel was within 125 miles of this city. The land for 150 miles east of here, Mr. Mackenzie says, is the finest he has ever seen. In fact, the whole of the C. N. R. passes through one of the richest pieces of territory in Canada.

Mr. Walker said that the faith the Bank of Commerce had in Edmonton when they erected their fine building here, has been fully realized. He considers the country that is being opened up by the C. N. R. much superior in every way to that traversed by the C.P.R. and he said that the problem he was facing now was how to meet the demand for bank branches along the line of the new railway. This he said, would probably be a difficulty with more than banks, as the services of all kinds that would be required would be enormous. He remarked that it was impossible to exaggerate in describing the 700 miles of fertile lands they have come over in their journey to Edmonton along the line of the new railway.

President Mackenzie stated that work would begin at once on the Stony Plain branch as it was the intention of the Company to build both north and west this fall. The president says he will return to Edmonton on the first passenger train that reaches the city unless his business should call for him being across the Atlantic at that time.

Both gentlemen were highly pleased with the inaugural celebration and considered that Edmonton did herself proud on the historic occasion of the introduction of provincial government to this part of the West.

GRADING OPERATIONS

McKinley's grading outfit has two or three days work yet to complete on its section near Vegreville when it will move to the line west of the city.

Gulbault's grading outfit went through the city yesterday to work on the Morinville branch. The work on this branch is being pushed along rapidly. The grading is complete into the city from the east as far as Kinsman avenue, and will be continued on west up Seventh street. The earth for grading on Seventh street will be brought from the station site where grading and digging is going on now. The railroad work will be on the hustle from now until the steel gets in. The grading on the branch connecting the E.Y. & P. with the new station will be almost completed this week.

THE INAUGURAL CELEBRATION

THURSDAY EVENING'S CONCERT

Of the concert Thursday, only the best things can be said. The orchestra was composed of the best musicians of the city, the tonal effect and balance were perfect. The orchestrations for both songs and choruses were arranged by Mr. Vernon Barford, who conducted both chorus and orchestra and arranged the program. Too much cannot be said of his painstaking work in this connection, the opening number was Barby's splendid hymn "God Prosper Him—Our King" which was sung with splendid effect by the entire chorus of fifty voices.

Mrs. O'Sullivan followed with Aylward's "Beloved—It is now," and "The Rosary." This was Mrs. O'Sullivan's first appearance before an Edmonton audience and she fully sustained the high reputation that had preceded her. Mrs. O'Sullivan has a voice of immense power, but very sweet and under perfect control and sang these songs with great taste and expression. Mr. Stutchbury sang "There's a Land" by Francis Alliston, in his usual good form. This inspiring patriotic song seemed to touch a responsive chord in the hearts of the audience, judging from its reception.

"The Song of the Vikings" was the next chorus. This was sung with great snap and vigor and was perhaps the best balanced of all mixed choruses.

The first, "O Lord, As Two Were Many" was exquisitely sung by Mrs. A. H. Bennett and Jackson Hanby. The orchestra followed with "La Couronne d'Or" Herman, splendidly played, firm attacks and fine expression throughout.

Mrs. A. H. Bennett next sang two dainty numbers "Damon" by Stronge and "Coo" by Paolo Rubens, with the taste and expression she always displays.

"The Soldiers Chorus" (from Faust) by Gounod, was the piece de resistance. It was magnificently sung by a male chorus of 40 voices and received such an ovation that it had to be repeated.

Miss Ethel Webster, who has been suffering seriously with her throat, pluckily refused to disappoint the audience and sang Del'Equa's difficult song "Chanson Provencale" with immense effect.

Cowen's "Bridal Chorus" (from the Rose Maiden) for full chorus and orchestra brought this most successful concert to a close, and Alberta may well be proud that her capital city has an array of capable musicians who can make a concert of such a high order such an immense success.

The concert was followed by an informal reception by the Excelsiency and the other notables at which about one thousand people took the opportunity of being presented to the Governor-General, the new Lieutenant-Governor, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

FRIDAY.

THE MUSICAL RIDGE

Promptly at 2.30 Inspector Church brought No. 1 troop of C. squadron on to the ground to give the musical ride. The men were all mounted on chestnut horses and carried lances. The Calgary band under Capt. Bagley provided the music. His Excellency and staff were driven up to a point of vantage to view the ride, which was one of the finest features of the day's program. The troop went through the intricate manoeuvres of the ride with great precision at first at the trot to the tune of "Weed may the Good Bye" and then at the canter to the stirring strains of Bonnie Dundee. The horses seemed to thoroughly enjoy the performance and were quite obviously keeping time to the music. In the final feature of the ride, the horses lay down at the word of command. A few of them, a little confused perhaps at the crowd and the strangeness of their surroundings were a little recalcitrant at first, but Mr. Church had hardly to lay his hand on them before they recognized the fact that the time was come to quit their foolishness and lie down with the rest. At the conclusion of the ride, His Excellency and staff, surrounded by the officers of the R. N.W.M. Police were photographed standing in front of the troop.

BASEBALL

The baseball game was not one to enthrall over. It was too one-sided to be interesting. The Wetaskiwin team won in a walk and at no time did our boys seem to have a chance. "The Moose," who plays with Fernie, Calgary, Banff or Wetaskiwin, as the case may be, is a star, and is perhaps the best player who ever appeared here. The Capitals are badly out of their strength for this season. The Wetaskiwin team has been steadily improving and the boys from the rich town play excellent ball. The score was 8 to 6 in favor of Wetaskiwin.

ADDRESS TO EARL GREY

Following was the address presented to the Governor-General on Friday:

To His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir Albert Henry George, Earl Grey, Viscount Howick, Baron Grey of Howick, in the county of Northumberland, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom, and a Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, etc., etc., Governor-General of Canada. Your Excellency:

The Mayor and Corporation of the City of Edmonton desire to extend to you the most hearty of welcomes upon this the occasion of your first visit to the city, and to express the hope that they may often again have the honor of greeting you.

The event which we are today celebrating is one well worthy of the presence of your Excellency as the representative within the Dominion of Canada of His Most Gracious Majesty. Today there arises within the Dominion and within the Empire a new province, possessing, or to possess, a parliament legislating in the King's name as directly and with as complete jurisdiction within its allotted sphere as the parliament of the United Kingdom itself. While the residents within its boundaries are still few in number they are only so by comparison with the teeming population which will some day make their homes within its fertile and wide-spread areas. It is not five years since the people of the present Province were counted by their thousands; today they are counted by their hundreds of thousands, and the time is not far distant when instead of thousands, or yet hundreds of thousands, they must be counted by their millions.

We hope and believe that when that day comes, the people of this Province will be found as true and loyal to Canada, to the British Empire and to the British Crown as they are today. Stated on behalf of the Mayor and Corporation of the City of Edmonton, by the Mayor and Secretary-Treasurer at the said city this first day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and five.

K. W. MACKENZIE, Mayor.
GEO. J. KINNARD, Secretary-Treasurer.

AGRICULTURAL EDITORS

The American Agricultural Editors who visited the city during the inaugural celebration were greatly pleased with Edmonton and the surrounding country. They were driven around the city and into the country a little way but most of them preferred taking in the celebration. The time was rather inopportune for them to see as much of the agricultural section here as was desirable, but their impressions of the country were very favorable. The party is under the direction of Mr. T. M. Knapp, of St. Paul, secretary of the Western Canadian Immigration Association, and is traveling in two pullmans, the "Twilight" and the "Rainbow," and is composed of the following representative editors of American Agricultural weeklies:

Mrs. Joseph Hiesdoerfer, while driving down the Ross grade on Sunday, allowed her horse to trot. Its pace got gradually faster until it finally ran away and Mrs. Hiesdoerfer was thrown out and badly hurt. The horse demolished the buggy before it was stopped.

POTTER & McDOUGALL

ening was well attended. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor presided and Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Wm. Patterson were present.

The musical part of the program was very much enjoyed. Dr. John Potts was at his best in delivering the oration. He issued a note of warning that in the present general tide of prosperity we had best have a care "lest we forget." He emphasized the necessity in this young province for an efficient educational system and the need of a good provincial university, and wound up by adjuring the people to preserve the Sabbath day inviolate in Alberta.

THE BALL.

The ball, the last and crowning event of the inaugural celebration, was a most decided success. The decorations of the rink showed to better advantage with the floor space clear. The music of the orchestra was all that could be desired and the youth and beauty of Alberta made a pleasing spectacle.

If the space would permit, the handsome and attractive gowns of the many ladies in attendance would make a story of itself.

The distinguished patronage of the Governor-General, Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, made the occasion and the well-arranged program of dances made the evening a most enjoyable one. For a few minutes the electric lights faded into twilight, but they soon blazed forth again upon the scene of bewildering beauty.

The ball committee deserve credit for the excellent arrangements, and are to be congratulated upon the success of their part of the celebration.

LACROSSE

The lacrosse match between Edmonton and Calgary was a good exhibition of Canada's national game. That no goals were scored during the first half was pretty good evidence that the teams were evenly matched. In the third quarter the tie was broken by Ken scoring for the home team. In the last quarter the troupe put it all over the visitors, scoring three more goals, and doing it in a way that said, "Give us time and we'll make it any number!"

HORSE RACES

The matinee arranged for by the driving club had to be postponed until Saturday, so the platform could be removed from the track. The races were put on on Saturday afternoon and resulted as follows:

BRITISH JOURNALIST HERE.

One of the journalists of note from the old land, who will glean copy from the wide fields of the west, and who was present at Alberta's inaugural, is Mr. Howard A. Kennedy, editor of the weekly edition of the Times, London. Mr. Kennedy maintains that all copy gathering will be merely incidental, and that he is really upon a pleasure trip, finding Canada just now the most interesting place in which to make a holiday. He is accompanied by his son, Rodrick S. Kennedy, and expects to spend at least a month on the prairies and among the mountains.

Mr. Kennedy has a good deal more than the ordinary Londoner's interest in Canada, having been for ten years resident in the Dominion. He was during that time special correspondent to the Montreal Witness and was afterwards city editor of that paper. As representative of the Witness, he came up with the troops in '95, and accompanied Colonel Otter's column to the front, was present at Cut Knife creek, got through to newspapermen the first account of the fight, and had the pleasure of interviewing Chief Big Bear, when that doubtful rebel was captured. As may easily be imagined, Mr. Kennedy was very anxious to see again the country traversed twenty years ago, and to revisit the points of interest around Battleford and Cut Knife creek.

He will cover the west pretty thoroughly and see "sample districts" of all sorts. He came with President William Mackenzie and party to Edmonton, travelling by rail to the end of the track, and by carriages over the 140 mile gap to Edmonton. He witnessed the inaugural ceremonies as representative of The Times, and goes back to Regina afterwards to see the debut of Saskatchewan.

LAURIER'S SPEECH AT THE INAUGURAL

His Worship the Mayor announced that the Premier of Canada, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, would address the people. On rising, Sir Wilfrid was greeted by an outburst of applause. He said, "I have an advantage over His Excellency, the Governor-General, who visits this city of Edmonton for the first time; I come here for the second time. It is many years since I was here before, so many years that probably you have forgotten it, but I have not, I can tell you to a day. It is just eleven years this month of September. It was in 1894, when it was my privilege for the first time to visit this immense portion of our common country, which extends from the western shore of the Lake of the Woods to the Rocky Mountains, which for two centuries or more was known as Rupert's Land, afterwards known as the Northwest Territories, and which today are springing into existence to take their rank and stand in the Confederation of Canada as the two provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan. Eleven years have passed and it seems as if I had told me at that time that my next visit to the city of Edmonton would be in connection with the auspicious event which has brought us here today, also His Excellency the Governor-General, this through not only from the province but from the neighboring Province of Saskatchewan, from Manitoba, and from the provinces of the east, and I am proud also to say from our neighbor to the south, the American Republic. I am sure if this had been prophesied then, I could not have believed it.

Eleven years have passed, and, as has been hinted a moment ago by the new Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, many and many changes have taken place. In 1894 the expectations which you indulged in of rapid development for this new territory had not been realized. The sun shone, the rain fell, the soil responded generously to the efforts of the farmer, but markets were far, the means of access were few, the profits of the farmer were scanty and small. Agriculture, upon which all industry depends, agriculture, from which all wealth is derived, was sorely depressed, and it being depressed, everything suffered in consequence.

The city of Winnipeg, the pioneer city, after making a splendid start, had reached the rank of a provincial town and seemed to have reached its furthest possibility. The five cities which now adorn the new provinces, Regina, Moosejaw, Calgary, Edmonton, and Prince Albert were nothing but struggling villages. You know as well as I do that at that time Regina had nothing royal but its name; Moosejaw was not far removed from the primitive condition which its name implied, a name no doubt in which its inhabitants gloried; Calgary had made a splendid start, but stood still. Of Edmonton what shall I say? I am sure I will not offend the pride of any citizen when I say I could count upon the fingers of my two hands all the buildings, public and private, which then constituted your town, now the capital of Alberta. But now everything is changed. Edmonton is making gigantic strides. Only eight years ago I had the honor of representing in Parliament the third largest city in Canada, the old city of Quebec, but now, I am sorry to say I have to take a back seat and that honor belongs to the city of Winnipeg. But in the name of the people of Quebec let me say I am not jealous, and I may also say that the two largest cities of Canada, Toronto and Montreal, if they are going to keep their supremacy had better look out—or, to use a Western phrase, they had better hustle right away.

Nor is this all, Sir, if I look about me in this vast sea of upturned faces I see the determination of a new province. I see everywhere hope, I see the calm resolution, courage and enthusiasm to face all difficulties, to settle all the problems which belong to a new province. And if it be true everywhere, it must be more true here in this new province, in this tracing atmosphere of the prairie that "hope springs eternal in the human breast."

Now, gentlemen, what is the cause of this change? Well, Sir, if I was addressing a political audience perhaps I might find many causes for this change. Perhaps also there might be gentlemen on this broad platform who cannot agree with me upon these reasons, but this is not a day of political controversy. This is a day of national rejoicing. This is a city where today we only remember one thing—that we are Canadians and British subjects. Therefore, ladies and gentlemen I will abstain from giving the cause. But, Sir, whether we agree or whether we disagree there is one thing upon which we all agree that the prosperity of this new province, past, present or future, is undoubtedly connected with the question of transportation, with the railway facilities. Well, Sir, I will not go further, because perhaps I might trespass upon the ground from which I wish to abstain.

But, gentlemen, in order to bring out this new Province to the standard which we expect it to attain it is necessary that we should have the heartly co-operation of all the people, of all the citizens of Alberta. We must have the co-operation of the old settlers, of the pioneers, the old pioneers, chiefly from the province of Ontario who came here when the land was a desert and made the desert a smile. We must also have the co-operation of the new citizens who come from all parts of the world, to give to Canada, and to Alberta, the benefit of their individuality, of their energy and their enterprise, and, since it happens that I have the honor of occupying the position of first servant of the Crown in this country, let me say on behalf of the Crown and with the concurrence of His Excellency, that to these new fellow-countrymen, to these new subjects of the King, I welcome those of our own kith and kin from the old land, I welcome those from the older portions of Europe, I welcome those who come from the neighboring, the kindred Republic on the other side of the line.

Let me say to one and all, gentlemen, that the Dominion of Canada is in one respect like the Kingdom of Heaven, those who come at the eleventh hour will receive the same treatment as those who have been in the fold for a long time.

We want to share with them our land, our laws, our civilization. Let them be British subjects, let them take their share in the life of this country, whether it be municipal, provincial or national. Let them be voters as well as citizens. We do not want nor wish that any individual should forget the land of his origin, or the land of his ancestors. Let them look to the past, but let them look also to the future. Let them look to the land of their ancestors, but let them look also to the land of their children. Let them become Canadians, British subjects and give their heart, soul, energy and power to Canada, to its institutions, and to its King, who like his illustrious mother, is a model constitutional sovereign.
